

Amy Martin, CPM®

Senior Property Manager | The Muller Company

Amy Martin is a senior property manager with The Muller Company, Real Estate Management & Investment. Amy oversees both the management and leasing operations for Westwood Medical Plaza, a three-time TOBY award winning medical office building located in the Westwood area of Los Angeles. Amy's responsibilities include supervision of a management staff of 22, oversees both capital and tenant improvement projects, negotiation of tenant lease renewals, financial reporting, vendor contract implementation all while maintaining excellent landlord tenant relations.

Amy's work experience encompass nearly 20 years in real estate. Manager positions include The Muller Company, Starbucks Coffee Company, Arden Realty, Inc., Samituar Constructs, Transwestern Property Company and Cushman & Wakefield. Amy has managed a variety of commercial projects which include Torrance Center South, Los Angeles Corporate Center, Westwood Center, and Conjunction Points in Culver City, Airport Center, 3600 Wilshire Boulevard and a five-year period at 6300 Wilshire Boulevard. For a three-year period from 2001 until 2004, Amy's passion for fashion was realized serving as the Senior Executive Assistant to the Vice President of Fashion for Dualstar Central Design Studio - the tween clothing line of Mary-Kate and Ashley Olsen. While never fully leaving real estate, Amy continued real estate sales service by representing several homeowners during the real estate boom as a part-time sales agent with House 2 House Realty.

Amy holds the following designations: LEED Green Associate; Certified Property Manager (CPM®); Real Property Administrator (RPA®) and Facilities Management Administrator (FMA®). Amy has a current salesperson license from California's Department of Real Estate.